

A. ANIMAL PRODUCTS (WHICH YOU CAN IMPORT BUT WITH QUANTITY RESTRICTION):

- Packaged cheeses (3 kilos or 6 pounds), except fresh ones.
- Butter (1 kilo or 2 pounds), cream (1 kilo or 2 pounds) and yogurt (1 liter or 33 ounces).
- Pasteurized liquid milk (1 gallon), condensed milk (1 liter or 33 ounces), powdered milk (2 kilograms or 4 pounds) and formula milk (5 kilograms or 11 pounds).
- Serrano ham, cured pork sausages and technically processed poultry and pork sausages (all 5 kilos or 11 pounds).
- Dried beef (500 grams or 17 ounces).
- Fully processed food preparations (4 kilos or 8 pounds).
- Pâté of any species (1 kilo or 2 pounds).
- Natural honey (1 liter or 33 ounces).
- Smoked turkey or chicken meat (6 kilos or 13 pound).
- Canned, jarred or vacuum-packed fish.
- Squid, octopus, snail, sea cucumber, dried and vacuum-smoked oyster.
- All cooked crustaceans and seaweed.
- Bottled water.
- Bottled juices.
- Bottled or powdered sodas (sealed)
- Jam.
- Peanut butter.
- Mayonnaise.
- Sealed commercial sauces.

*Items above without quantities should not be excessive and match the number of passengers it is traveling with.

B. WHAT YOU CAN IMPORT (ONLY REQUIRE VISUAL INSPECTION):

- Dehydrated vegetables and fruits in hermetically sealed containers.
- Roasted coffee in hermetically sealed containers.
- Pistachios, almonds, hazelnuts and walnuts, shelled.
- Yerba mate.
- Spices such as vanilla, cinnamon, ginger and cloves.
- Dried medicinal herbs.
- Flours and cereals.

C. WHAT IS PROHIBITED (AND WILL NOT PASS THROUGH CUSTOMS):

SAGARPA authorities usually detain these goods because they represent a risk to Mexico's animal health.

- Fresh, refrigerated or frozen pork, beef and poultry.
- Campero type chicken from Central America (marinated or flavored).
- All raw crustaceans.
- Processed foods containing beef.
- Hams, sausages and cheeses produced in an artisan way.
- Fresh cheese: you can only cross 3 kg/6 pounds of any type of mature cheese, which comes in its entire original packaging and labeled in English, Spanish or another language.
- Fresh, frozen or refrigerated meats.
- Eggs.
- Flowers or plants.
- Dead animals or their blood.
- Artisanal products.
- Fresh fruits and vegetables: some of the most commonly retained are apples, bananas, oranges, tangerines, peaches, mangoes, grapes and plums.
- Straw.
- Vessels.

- Fish and mollusks.
- Central American free-range chicken.
- Vegetative material for planting.
- Fresh or refrigerated poultry meat.
- Fresh or refrigerated pork.
- Dirt or soil.
- Containers filled with hay.
- Products with material of plant or animal origin.
- Shrimp, crabs or lobsters in any presentation.